Reaching In?

Our past few weeks have focused more on our walk with God, and connections with our family-especially moving Tom's mother to her new apartment in central Ohio. Thanks to those who prayed for us during that time, which allowed us to process events of recent months and seek God's direction for the coming months. We would appreciate your prayers as we travel back to the UK on Monday and Tuesday!

Local Church

We continue to hear good things from the Frankley Church. A new family attended on Easter Sunday pray as each member continues to reflect on their role, and how they can help move the church forward. Pray for outreach events being planned for Pentecost.

Coaching

Praise God with us that in recent days, some key steps forward in coaching are taking shape: we met Francoise in Tennessee who will help translate the second coaching book into French; and a big decision about Encompass coaching was made (though we can't announce it publicly yet).

Family Front

Our weeks in the states allowed for quite a lot of family time with our parents, brothers and sister-in-law, nephews and nieces, kids and their spouses, and grandkids. Very meaningful and so appreciated!

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.
