

Barlows in Birmingham

Reaching Out

We arrived safely back in the UK last Tuesday (thanks to those who prayed us through our journey), ready to reconnect. Since then, MaryAnn has been to Craft and Cuppa, and we've met with the Goldwing Club. So many deep questions and needs in the wake of Covid and all that is going on in our world right now.

Pray that we boldly introduce them to Jesus and His view of these events!

Local Church

This Sunday, the Frankley Church will meet at Holly Hill School, continuing in the Gospel of John. Pray that a new family who came to the Easter Service will come again. An added joy will be having Tom's brother, Bruce and his wife Christi at the worship gathering. (They are visiting several cross cultural staff in Western Europe).

Training and Coaching

We have mentioned before that resolving conflict is quite an issue in this culture-and God gave MaryAnn a passion to develop skills and tools to help with mediation. Pray as she does background work to develop an app as a resource which could be shared broadly to help teach the basics of conflict resolution.

Family Front

We are thankful for a few days with Bruce and Christi, showing them around Birmingham-and possibly a brief visit to Wales. MaryAnn is still struggling with Covid symptoms, which we think she caught during the flights to the UK. Please pray for her recovery.

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.
