

PRAYmissions

Karen Foster in Cameroon

After a 2 year break, Kids Conference is back! The first group met on Easter Sunday afternoon and it went quite smoothly considering we had 250+ kids in one room and it had rained in the afternoon. Our apologies to all those families to whom muddy children returned. Also to those who were put under great pressure by kiddos who “had to” have the local church tshirt, though the teachers had been urged to not make parents buy things. The teachers chose the theme resurrection. The skit included the preceding crucifixion, with the skinniest little brown Jesus you ever saw. I don’t know how he kept a straight face through it all but he did, even when lying on a table giggling girls wailing over him. We’re going to give him a prize. A prize of a Bible also goes to a boy who taught the lesson; so well done!

I’m considering treating all those teachers who prepared the kids well to a lunch. The kids were happy with their treat of sardines and bread. Yes seriously! There were very few of the wee ones who snuck in though the minimum age was six.

Kids conference is fun! Pray that the kids and teachers continue to grow in their understanding of the implications of the resurrection for their own lives. Thank the Lord for the success of the conference and pray for the protection and success for the one on April 24. We’ll have more kids crossing the city in public transportation for the second conference, which tempts me to worry.

A thank you gift will go to Elig Edzoa church who bailed out host Bata church when the sound equipment wasn’t working. With that many kids a microphone is essential if you want anyone to hear.

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.
