Barlow—Missionator (On mission for a new generation)

The next two weeks

This week and next, I am working through lists of names that have been handed down to me with the goal of discerning which of these might be in Winona Lake, IN next week for Grace College Conference on Mission. Would you please pray that I would be able to compile correct details; be inspired in wording on how to contact each person; and that those God is calling to work with Encompass would respond. Some of these people are from WLGC; some are current students at Grace College and Seminary; others are graduated but still in the area.

Great visit at Grace Powell Church

The visit to Grace Powell Church was very encouraging. They have a quarterly luncheon for everyone who is missions-minded. The goal is to encourage each other. The Farners who are retired missionaries from Brazil were there—they lead the ESL Program; Jordan and Amanda Damon who work with 3 strands; and a life-long friend and support partner, Sharon Morris, who passed on the name of a young person who wants to be a missionary! Hallelujah.

Dieringer's in Vanuatu

Thank you for many of you that pray regularly for us, for many that have joined us in giving monthly, for many that faithfully give or have given, for the generous special gifts and also for those that have pledged to give even more that before each month. Our hearts are full of gratitude for each one of you as we reflect on God's goodness and faithfulness. Each one of you are an important part of what has been done and what we will continue to do as an extension of Jesus hands and feet in Vanuatu.

With anticipation and excitement we share that we are incredibly close to reaching 100% of our budget. If you are thinking about joining our Wycliffe ministry, please let us know if you have any questions, if you plan to increase giving or become a new partner ministry.

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.
