

PRAYmissions

Barlows in Birmingham

Transitioning

We praise God for many steps forward in our physical transition since our last update: car purchase, new title and insurance; UK funds transferred; house search begun. Pray with us for lots of admin still to be done, and for our minds to catch up with all the changes.

Reaching Out

MaryAnn has already found a potential discipleship partner and she has been asked to disciple young women at a local university. Tom is starting to meet people through a volleyball club. Pray as we start to reach out here, and continue reaching several in the UK

Coaching and Training

Tom's session yesterday for Encompass staff, looking at the Hofstede 6D model, went very well. The college "missions fair" time was great for MaryAnn, and informs some ongoing discussions about a possible Encompass role for her. The larger question of the ministries for us to be involved in is BIG in the next few weeks, so please pray with us for God's clear direction into that.

Family Front

Earlier this week, we learned of the home-going of a dear brother in Christ, Tom Julien. Though not a family member by blood, his life and witness deeply impacted everyone in our family, We hope to attend his memorial service on Saturday. Pray with us for God's comfort for his family, as they adjust to his relocation to heaven.

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.
