

PRAYmissions

Barlows in Birmingham

Transitioning: As God led us last April to relocate (not retire), we received really helpful advice about 3 key phases of transition: finishing well, adapting, and new starts. Since then, we have worked through many steps—and tried to communicate that here. We hope the graphics will help illustrate each stage in summary form. At present, we are still in the adapting, on-between phase. We are finding some new routines and reference points, though will a long way to go. The main area of prayer this month is clarity about our future roles. Several people need to speak into those decisions, so many conversations are involved. Pray that we will discern God's clear leading regarding our work roles.

Reaching Out: As we continue adapting, God provided an open door for MaryAnn to reach out in discipling students at Cedarville College—30 minutes away. Pray that the students will grow, and that MaryAnn will gain insights into US culture. Much has changes since our 1st deployment!

Coaching and Training: As we adapt, Tom is getting trained in how culture affects organizations, as well as behavior awareness in meetings and conversations. We pray these skills will enhance our own ministry and benefit all the various circles where we have influence.

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.
