

Harrison in Western Asia

He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners, to proclaim the year of favor.

The time so many of you have prayed and given towards us here. We are headed to our appointment at the immigration office now. We have been working hard, buying a house, gathering the paperwork necessary and today we are turning it all in. Keep us in your prayers. Not just today, but for the next several weeks as we wait for the results. We will have 30 days from today to turn in any remaining paperwork immigration deems necessary (and it's common to have some), and then we wait.

Many have asked how we are feeling this week. I Raegen summarized it well, "my brain is telling me not to worry, but my body just doesn't want to listen." We are confident that the Lord is leading us. We are confident in his provision, whatever will be. Our bodies remember that this life does not offer stability and so we cling to Him for everything we need. If you are awake pray for us!

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.
