

Barlows in Transition

Recruiting

We praise God that MaryAnn's Ministry assignment is finalized. She is already busy with the big learning curve of her new role, collaborating with a team of 3 others.

On Sunday, she will travel to Georgia to help with Encounter Atlanta, a key event to discover and reach out to the nations located there. A main focus for MaryAnn will be the outreach to the children in one of the neighborhoods. Pray for those attending to catch God's heart for the nations, and for many to understand the Gospel during the week.

Partnering Financially and in Prayer

We have heard from many individual partners and two churches who have agreed to partner with MaryAnn; others are still deciding. We praise God for that! She has over 30% of the support partners she needs to find by August 1. Keep praying with us! If you have partnered with us before and want to continue, let us know by emailing MABarlow@EncompassWorld.org. You can continue giving exactly as before; no changes required!

Coaching and Training

As you read and pray through this update, Tom is at a Hofstede conference in Chattanooga. Pray for good connections and conversations around cultural intelligence. Pray also for the less formal chances to connect with several people he has met multiple times already. Pray for opportunities to share about faith in Jesus.

Also this month, Tom is training another group of French speaking leaders from four different countries via an online workshop. Pray as they seek to lead better with the skills they are learning.

Family Front

On the way home from Chattanooga, Tom will do a quick overnight with Niki and John in Nashville—just in time for Father's Day.

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.
