

PRAYmissions

Harrison in Asia

- Our connections. John has been able to make some awesome connections through his language learning. Our God is big and gives good gifts. After swimming, he meets with Mr. A for coffee and language exchange. Mr. A is retired and has children in Texas. Mr. A is also a community connector. He has invited several more guys to join their language exchange time. Amazing! Pray that John's relationship with this group of guys would continue to grow. Continue to pray for S., John's language helper. They continue to read the Book each week and S has been very receptive to the truth of the message. He has even been correcting his family's incorrect views on the Book. Pray that the HS would move in his heart and in his family (parents, siblings, spouse, etc) and they would be ready to know the Son.
- Our vacation. Friends, it's been a LONG time since we have taken dedicated time away (based on several factors including finances, schedules, visas, school, etc). We are getting away as a family in a couple of weeks. Please pray that this time is restful for us! Pray that we can connect with each other. Pray that the details, especially transportation, food, and illness are non-issues.

Our Joy, patience, endurance. Friends, I don't know if it's because it's January, culture shock (it's cyclical, you know), sickness, or what, but we are wearing a little thin. Would you pray for our mental, physical, spiritual, and emotional vitality? Rhythms come slowly but we want to be deliberate with them. Pray that we don't give up too early to in our development of long-term healthy rhythms.

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.

Love in a Bag Thank you for your continued support for Love in a bag. The need has increased to 48 bags a week and still may climb. In the past we have never done more than 33 a week. So far the increased need is being met with your support. Please continue to give and we will let you know if we are not able to reach the goal needed.
