

Burgess in Africa

I'm off to the airport. I'll be attending a consultation on Christian publishing in Africa with attendees coping from across Africa, Europe, the U.K. and the U.S. Will you please pray for me, my family in my absence and for the good partnership discussions? Several for the Study Bible Team will be there too.....

Which leads me to tell you how thankful I am for the team and their continuing work in training Christians in how to best use the Study Bible. Last week there was a 3-day training time in Benin. New week there will be another training time in the south of Chad and we're working on dates for the CAR.

Life at Macon Church had been fruitful. On the request of some younger believers, I started a study on Matthew chapters 5 to 7. We meet again in March. Please pray for this group as we work to know each other better, to love God well and to live out our faith as a community.

We're so grateful for your prayers and for the fact that you're together with us I the work God has given us.

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.
