

A & K in Central Asia

Praise

Church gathering—we found a place to rent out on Sunday mornings for our gatherings. It is a good location in the city and is large enough for our group.

Business Projects-our part in the projects is done. We have passed things on to the software company. A may have a role in the projects down the road, but for now it is out of our hands.

Language Learning (LL)-despite having a major break from LL (more details below). A had been able to see some improvements in his Russian.

Friend Visit-our time with our friend who came to visit was really good. It was a time of fun, adventure, and relaxation. But most importantly, it was so good to reconnect and be with each other again for two weeks.

Prayer

Health-Unfortunately, A and I were sick throughout the whole month of June. Thankfully mostly not at the same time, but it has definitely taken its toll on us.

Conference-It is one month before the conference in August. Pray that all the details come together smoothly and that no major issues arise during the conference.

Hosting-this looking different for us over the summer. We are having to pivot from our normal routine since lots of people are gone for the break or are working. Pray that we don't get discouraged by the lack of participation, an to try to find ways to open our home.

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.
