Karen Foster in Cameroon

October ends in Cameroon: And the time does not change. It never changes at 3.8480 degrees North or the equator. There's no Halloween either. If Cameroon's orders weren't still closed to visitors, you'd be looking for tickets right?

Pray: Rosine, wife of Pastor Edmond and one of our two teachers of wives of the Bible institute students. Until last week that is. Marital tensions are such that Edmond said she could not teach, and we are praying for their marriage. Mission coworkers and local pastors have met with them, so far to no avail. Unless God works powerfully and quickly, which of course would not be surprising, Rosine would miss the teacher training November 9 to 27.

Fellow teacher Nathalie said, "this bothers me," Rosine leaving the school. Nathalie, Jacquie Jensen and I will carry on with the teaching. In our recent course on spiritual growth, we touches again on the presence and work of the Holy Spirit in the believers life. "Does he leave when you sin?" The learners weren't all that sure. Nathalie assured them that he doesn't leave but added "he'd be tired!" In and out, in and out. Pray for Nathalie, Catherine (student), Naomi and Sonia (student wives with good potential) and Huguette (student auditing the training) as Jason Carmean (Bible institute director) works with them in November on how to teach well.

Encompass World Partners

Kyler and Claire Malarae in Japan

Kyler and Claire continue to be amazed and grateful at the number of people interested in their ministry and reaching Japanese people with the Gospel. Please pray for them as they adjust to Kyler's new work situation, which allows them much more time to meet with potential partners. Pray the Lord would give them grace for the many conversations they will have on their calendar and also wisdom.

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.
